Bloodmobile Makes Visit To High School

Each year Mount Gilead competes with the county schools in the Red Cross' high school blood drive. F.M.A. advisor, Mrs. Virginia Meyer, recruits students not only to give blood, but also to help Red Cross personnel register donors, to act as hostesses at the canteen, and to generally offer help where needed. In a valiant effort to win back the Red Cross trophy, 64 students and faculty members donated 58 pints of blood on February 22nd. Although the rotating trophy given to the county school that donated the most blood was lost, everyone should be commended for his effort.

Everyone loves a cheerful giver. Tom Gompf adds his pint.

Pam Bedwell Is 1984 Homecoming Queen

The week of October 15th, 1984, was MGHS's Homecoming Week with the theme of Purple Reign. Homecoming festivities began with class competitions including Purple Day, Bandana Day, Button Day, and Sweats Day. The seniors, during the course of the week, showed their spirit by winning 4 of the 5 contests. Thursday the 18th found many students participating in the traditional parade and bonfire. The winning float with the theme, "Crunch Catholic", was built by the senior class. Friday's pre-game activities began with the crowning of the queen, Pam Bedwell, by retiring queen Deidre Rathburn.

Other members of the court included: Renee Corral, Valorie McAvoy, and Michele Palmer. The Indians hosted the Irish of Marion Catholic. After a long and heated but disappointing game, the Irish came out on top 28-18. Saturday's dance marked the end of Homecoming Week. The dance was sponsored by DECA and JB Sound provided the music.

Literary Arts Day Features Guest Author

Cynthia Rylant, poet and author of several children's books, was the featured speaker at the first Literary Arts Day. Regular classes were suspended so that students could sign up for mini-courses in papermaking, bookmaking, acting, calligraphy, book talks, and book reviews. All courses were presented by professionals in and around the area who donated their time to make their presentations. Subjects covered included talks on Jim Thorpe, picture books, controversial books, and video writing to name a few. Ms. Mary Johnson, teacher of English and speech, was coordinator of the day's events. Author Cynthia Rylant spoke to students about her early years in Appalachia and the kind of experiences which helped her to become a writer. She shared the joys and pains of writing for publication and helped the students realize the process involved in bringing a piece of writing to print. Through the speakers and the creative, hands-on workshops, students experienced literature and the arts in a new way.

Walter, Stump, And Gompf Are All-League

Brian Hershey gains big yardage in the exciting tie game with Highland.

Early in the season Mount Gilead fans had visions of the Indians winning the MOC. In their first league games, the Indians rolled over Cardington 20-0, followed by a 14-6 victory over Fredericktown. The Indians' third conference clash ended in a 28-28 deadlock with a tough Highland team. Then title hopes faded as the Indians dropped three straight conference games, and it wasn't until the 44-8 romp over Northmor in the season's finale that Mount Gilead got back on the winning track. The Indians ended the season in sixth place in the MOC with a 3-3-1 record in conference play and a 3-5-1 overall record. At the Fall Sports' Banquet, Tom Gompf was named MVP, Mike Walter was Lineman of the Year, and William Stump was Back of the Year. Mike Walter, William Stump, and Tom Gompf were selected for the All-MOC team. Kelly Fitzpatrick, Brian Zerman, Eric Casto, Dick Nelson, and Mike Cook were MOC Honorable Mention.

Volleyball Team Wins Sectional Title

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL TEAM: Shanna Levering, Melissa Hart, Stephanie Wagner, Deb Wiseman, Brenda Mullett, Melissa Collins, Deana Peterson, Cindy Curl, Kim Wolford, Deena Maddy, Dawn Troyer, Kathy Green.

The 1984-85 varsity volleyball team was successful because the team set goals and met them. Having never been a serious contender at the Cardington Invitational, the girls along with Coach Dettra made it a priorty and as a result were runners-up to Loudonville. The plan was to do well at the sectionals and there the Lady Indians defeated Buckeye Valley, Elgin, and North Union to take the Sectional title. A third goal was to have more Mount Gilead players recognized by the MOC. At season's end, Melissa Hart and Cindy Curl were named All-MOC while Melissa Collins and Kim Wolford received Honorable Mention. Fourth, teamwork was stressed by Coach Dettra, who had coached some of the girls for six years, as they key to success. At the Fall Sports' Banquet, Melissa Hart was named team MVP and Best Setter. The Coach's Award for Best All-Around Player went to Kim Wolford. Other awards were Cindy Curl the Best Server Trophy, Melissa Collins the Best Spiker Trophy, and Brenda Mullett the Most Improved Trophy. The varsity ended the season with a record of 10-3 in the MOC and 18-8 overall. The reserves posted an 11-3 MOC record. Both teams finished a close second in the conference race.

Cheerleaders Participates In Area Events

Cheerleading involves much more than just cheering at football and basketball games. The cheerleaders are responsible for building school spirit and pride. In addition to the many hours of practice, they have spent countless more hours making spirit posters, planning pep rallies, decorating team members' lockers, and organizing homecoming activities. This year the cheerleaders represented Mount Gilead High School in several area parades including the Marion Popcorn Festival Parade and the Bratwurst Festival Parade in Bucyrus. They also cheered for the girls' volleyball team in the district competition at Gahanna Lincoln High School. Probably the greatest effort, as well as the most satisfaction, came in decorating the entire school for both fall and winter homecoming activities. The theme "Purple Reign" was a great success during football season, as was basketball's "The Heat Is On." The cheerleaders are a dedicated and hard-working group that has represented their school well.

Advancing to the Regional contest, the Indians ended their bid for the State Class A title with a loss to Piketon in the semi-finals at Portsmouth. Many of the classes dressed as characters based on her book, "When I Was Young in the Mountains". After her presentation to each group of students, she answered questions and autographed books. Her visit culminated several weeks of art, music, literary, and craft activities centered around the "mountain" theme of several of her books.

For author Cynthia Rylant Week, the first grade teachers and students at the Primary Center dress as people in the mountains would dress.
